

Spike the Fork, King and Princess.

Once upon a time on an island there was a small cottage. In the cottage there lived a King and his Princess. In the cutlery drawer there was a fork and his name was Spike. One night Spike heard a faint bang! "What was that?" thought Spike. It wasn't the King as usual, it was a wizard. Wizard said to Spike "We need your help, the King and Princess have been stolen!" "Oh no!" said Spike. "Come with me!" said the Wizard. A witch had hypnotised the King and Princess. When the Wizard and Spike the Fork arrived the first person they saw was the witch. "Stab her!" said Wizard. "Ouch!" screeched the witch. Wizard then banished her and then opened the cage and Wizard, King, Princess and Spike the Fork lived happily ever after.

By Beth Scanlan